

eden project

This is to certify that Versapak International Limited has achieved a reduction in its carbon footprint per employee and is committed to continuous improvement in sustainability

Valid to 30 November 2021

Steve Malkin
Founder
The Planet Mark

Sir Tim Smit KBE
Co-Founder
The Eden Project

MEASURE

13.6% carbon reduction per employee

We are committed to reducing our carbon emissions yearly so that together, we can all halt climate change

- Total carbon footprint: 31.0 tCO₂e
- Reporting Boundary: Kent Site Operations (4 Verdion Way, Erith, Kent)
- Emission sources: electricity, T&D losses, natural gas, water, waste, business travel, paper
- Reporting Period: 1 Sep 2019 – 31 Aug 2020

ENGAGE

16 FTE employees

We engage our employees and wider stakeholders to unlock their talent and knowledge to drive year on year progress in sustainability

COMMUNICATE

We recognise that transparent communication is essential for transformational change and we quantifiably report on

7 SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

We see a world where we all contribute to a thriving planet and are a collective force for good. The Planet Mark enables organisations and their people to positively transform society, the environment and the economy.